

Lady Poverty Region #68
Secular Franciscan Order

Strategic Plan
2015 - 2018

*Lady Poverty was the symbol of the paradoxes of the Gospel: richness in poverty, life in death, strength in weakness, beauty in the sordid and shabby,
peace in conflict and temptation, fullness in emptiness and, above all,
love in detachment and deprivation.
She made everything hard soft, and everything difficult easy.*

I am the vine, you are the branches

MISSION STATEMENT

The Lady Poverty Region of the Secular Franciscan Order,
Inspired by the Holy Spirit and our Rule,
Is called, as our Seraphic Father Francis was,
to rebuild the Church.
We seek to encounter the living and active person of Christ Through apostolic activity in fraternity and in the world,
Going from Gospel to life and life to the Gospel.

VISION STATEMENT

Our Little Portion: Rebuilding the World, One Person at a Time

Servant Leadership:

We demonstrate vibrant leadership through humble service at the regional and local fraternity levels.

Apostolic Service:

Our fraternities are engaged in evangelical and apostolic efforts for justice, peacemaking and care of creation.

Fraternal Life:

United by our profession, we are called to build a more Christ-centered world through prayer, ongoing formation, and commitment to the Gospel life.

Franciscan Identity:

We live a life of simplicity, charity, and reconciliation, conforming our thoughts and actions to those of Christ by means of daily conversion.

Strategic Plan Strategy Map 2015 - 2018

Servant Leadership: We demonstrate vibrant leadership through humble service at the regional and local fraternity levels. To increase vibrant, servant leadership within Lady Poverty Region, we:

- ❖ Develop leadership programming
 - ◆ At every annual chapter, explain the roles of officers at every level of fraternity
 - ◆ At every annual chapter, have each officer group meet separately to do some formation and discuss pertinent issues
 - ◆ Share excerpts from Greenleaf and/or other prominent servant leadership authors
 - ◆ Send representatives from LPR to national workshops (Youth, JPIC)
- ❖ Mentor new leaders
 - ◆ Hold “mock” council meetings as ongoing formation at fraternity gatherings (local, regional)
 - ◆ Share council meeting agendas with membership
 - ◆ Observe how people express themselves during meeting discussions – recognize their gifts & talents
 - ◆ Invite members to council meetings to discuss commission work and other projects and/or topics
- ❖ Strengthen formation programs
 - ◆ Choose a few resources from the FUN manual to highlight in each La Pobrecita
 - ◆ Recommend use of TAU-USA for formation
 - ◆ Send Regional Formation Director to National Formation Workshops
- ❖ Revitalize formation teams
 - ◆ Recruit 1-2 members from each cluster for regional formation team – meet at least once per year at annual chapter
 - ◆ Organize formation directors within clusters – meet 2-4 times per year
- ❖ Improve communications
 - ◆ Share agendas for REC meetings and summaries of meetings in La Pobrecita
 - ◆ Share excerpts from and/or the entire fraternal and pastoral visitation report with the members
 - ◆ Share local fraternity newsletters within clusters or region
 - ◆ Feature interviews with and/or contributions from REC members in La Pobrecita

Apostolic Service: Our fraternities are engaged in evangelical and apostolic efforts for justice, peacemaking and care of creation. To encourage apostolic service within our Region, we:

- ❖ Strengthen clusters
 - ◆ Hold REC meetings within clusters and invite local fraternity council members to participate in open forum
 - ◆ Regional councilors increase outreach efforts by visiting local fraternities at their regular gatherings
 - ◆ Recruit cluster coordinators to facilitate cluster gatherings
- ❖ Strengthen JPIC & Youth Commissions
 - ◆ Increase funding for JPIC, Youth Commission activities
 - ◆ Increase interaction between JPIC, Youth Commission Coordinators and local fraternities
 - ◆ Increase interaction between JPIC, Youth Commission Coordinators and REC
 - ◆ Increase interaction between JPIC, Youth Commission Coordinators and NAFRA counterparts
 - ◆ Populate the Commissions with volunteers from local fraternities
 - ◆ Send JPIC, Youth Commission Coordinators to national workshops
- ❖ Mentor new leaders
 - ◆ Encourage local fraternities and clusters to appoint JPIC, Youth Coordinators
 - ◆ Encourage local fraternities and clusters to host regional or cluster JPIC, Youth activities
 - ◆ Consider “twinning” with an emerging National or Regional fraternity in an English-speaking country in Africa
- ❖ Strengthen formation programs
 - ◆ Emphasize connections between study, conversion and action (let us go out to “repair what is broken” in the world)
- ❖ Improve communications
 - ◆ Publicly recognize the evangelical and apostolic activities of our local fraternities and individual members at the annual Chapter and through La Pobrecita and the LPR website
 - ◆ Utilize diocesan publications and resources to promote fraternity, cluster, and regional apostolic efforts

Fraternal Life: United by our profession, we are called to build a more Christ-centered world through prayer, ongoing formation, and commitment to the Gospel life. To build fruitful fraternities we:

- ❖ Strengthen finances
 - ◆ Provide education opportunities for treasurers at annual chapters
 - ◆ Develop annual plans for timely payment of Fair Share
 - ◆ Develop plans for charitable giving
- ❖ Strengthen spiritual assistance
 - ◆ Explore options for secular spiritual assistant training programs and offer these programs to members within region
 - ◆ Provide speakers for S.A. groupings at annual chapters
 - ◆ Periodically recognize and celebrate our S.A.s
- ❖ Ensure up-to-date visitations and elections
 - ◆ REC councilors work with fraternities to ensure visitations and elections are scheduled in a timely manner
 - ◆ Discuss/emphasize the importance of regular visitations and elections with ministers at annual chapter
- ❖ Strengthen formation programs
 - ◆ Regional S.A.s are integral to Regional formation team
 - ◆ Encourage regular review of the Rule and Constitutions
 - ◆ Incorporate CIOFS dossiers into ongoing formation
 - ◆ Provide workshops on the FUN manual
 - ◆ Provide Liturgy of the Hours instruction
- ❖ Revitalize formation teams
 - ◆ Encourage local S.A.s to actively participate in fraternity formation programs
 - ◆ Develop cluster formation teams – meet 2-4 times/year
 - ◆ Provide training and support for formation teams
- ❖ Improve communications
 - ◆ Encourage fraternities to contribute their events to LPR website
 - ◆ Encourage all members to visit website regularly
 - ◆ Report database and directory changes as they occur
 - ◆ Submit annual reports on time – local and regional
 - ◆ Share La Pobrecita with all fraternity members when it is distributed to ministers

Franciscan Identity: We live a life of simplicity, charity, and reconciliation, conforming our thoughts and actions to those of Christ by means of daily conversion. To increase Franciscan identity and vocations in Lady Poverty Region, we:

- ❖ Promote regional and national events such as retreats, “the Q,” and the Summer Seminar for OFS
 - ◆ Offer presentations within clusters about the Year of Mercy, other topics
 - ◆ Encourage celebration of Franciscan feast days together as family
 - ◆ Include recommitment ceremony at annual chapter – “Yes, this is what I want!”
 - ◆ Integrate retreat experience into the annual chapter in the free year (not an election or visitation year)
- ❖ Encourage and strengthen local fraternities to increase vocations, resulting in decreased deactivations
 - ◆ At any Franciscan gathering, remind the members as to who we are a members of the Franciscan family
 - ◆ Conduct regular visits to local fraternities by REC councilors to “take the pulse” of the fraternity
 - ◆ Encourage local fraternities hold an annual “Come and See”
 - ◆ Invite others to participate in fraternity-sponsored events, such as “days of recollection,” retreats, Transitus, feast day celebrations, and the like
 - ◆ Ensure that spiritual assistance is available to all fraternities
- ❖ Strengthen formation programs
 - ◆ Study the Rule and Constitutions regularly
 - ◆ Encourage use of the Franciscan Supplement to the Liturgy of the Hours to celebrate the feasts and memorials of the Franciscan family saints
 - ◆ Provide a means of measuring daily conversion through apostolic action at the local, regional, or national level - “How am I doing?” on the “Conversion Scale”
- ❖ Improve communications
 - ◆ Remind members to visit the LPR website and to read La Pobrecita and TAU-USA
 - ◆ Remind members to wear their Tau crosses in public settings, especially when performing apostolic actions
